The first building you notice when you visit Riyadh is probably Al Mamlaka Tower, or Kingdom Centre. It is in the middle of the city and it is the tallest building in Riyadh, over 300m tall. It has 99 Floors and 45 lifts, and in 2002 it won the Empires Skyscraper Award. The 56m long bridge at the top offers a view of the whole of Riyadh. In the building, there is lots of room for office's, Flats, and parking for 3000 cars, but also on the top floor you can find the second highest mosque in the world. The Four Seasons Hotel takes up 10 Floors of the building with its 197 rooms, gym and swimming pool. Al Mamlaka is also famous for its huge shopping centre. The shopping centre has five floors full of well-known shops from around the world. It is open from 9am till midday. Then it opens again at 4pm till eleven at night. It's the perfect place to shop in Riyadh. Visitors can also enjoy food and drinks at one of the many cafés and restaurants in the tower. For something a bit special, take the lift to the 77th Floor and enjoy Spazio's restaurant with food from all over the world.
